

Nature Manitoba Scholarship Application:

You should submit a biographical sketch, not a research proposal. Why did you become interested in research? Was there someone who sparked your interest? Are there any events that led to you deciding that you wanted to pursue research in biological sciences. A brief description of your research is appropriate, but should not be the body of the sketch.